Damaris Winners Announced by May 6, 2019
Award Reception, Monday, May 13th, 6:30-8pm

The Damaris Fine Arts Award was established in memory of Damaris (Dee) Schulte by her family: husband, Dick; & sons, Philip and Mike. Dee, an artist in her own right, had a Bachelor's Degree in Art and a Master's Degree in Art Education. This Award honors

Dee as an artist and recognizes the dedication and many contributions she made to the Plymouth Community Arts Council (PCAC):

- Creator of "The Damaris Booklets"
- The Middle School Art Contest was named the Damaris Award
- Taught art classes for the PCAC
- A board member for 7 years
- Wrote the PCAC history and kept the scrapbooks
- Designed the program for the Follies for all but one of the productions

HOW TO APPLY: Fill out The attached application and return it along with the required essay, recommendations, and portfolio (checklist attached). Identify the portfolio with student's name & contact information.

Students' artwork will be judged on its originality, creativity, and use of material. Artwork will be professionally juried. Please let us know if you would like one or more of your P-CCS Annual Art Show entries to be considered as part of your portfolio submission. We will make accommodations.

Juror, Dennis Jones

Originally from Detroit, Dennis Jones now resides in Plymouth, Michigan. He is a licensed practicing architect, an educator and artist. He completed his formal education as an architect from the University of Detroit in 1983. He completed his Master of Fine Arts, in Painting, from Wayne State University in 1990. Since, he has exhibited his work extensively in the Detroit area and beyond. Jones has been an adjunct professor of color theory, 2d and 3D design concepts at The College for Creative Studies since 2002. He has also taught architectural design and drawing at The University of Detroit, Wayne State University and Macomb County Community College. He won a, "Best of Show Award", for his triptych painting entry to the "Artists Among Us Exhibition", a juried, traveling exhibition, involving poets' and musicians' reactions to the visual arts. In July, 2002 he installed a permanent outdoor sculpture at Plymouth Community Arts Center. In August 2002, he completed a significant commission to design and install the Sandra Sagar Wall of Courage, a large 19' by 10' mural and stone sculpture located in the new Plymouth High School. Several of his outdoor sculptures were on exhibit in the city of Saugatuck's Art'roundtown exhibition.
