Date	Presenter	Program
Jan. 18	Gail Grieger	Experience Amazing at the PARC: Gail is Executive Director of Plymouth Arts and Recreation Complex. She can't wait to tell us about the classes, workshops, drop-in-sessions and all of the new things happening at the former high school building on Church Street.
Jan.25	Nancy Darga	The Restoration of the Piquette Plant: Nancy returns to tell us about this old Ford Factory called "the birthplace of the Model T." Now it's being lovingly restored by a group of dedicated volunteers to give it a new life.
Feb. 1	Mike Janz	Think Spring: Mike is a "Master Gardener" who enjoys sharing his love of the out-of-doors. Perennials are his specialty. Bring your gardening questions and share your gardening tips with us too.
Feb. 8	Sue Seelye	The History of Early American Toys: Sue is a retired school teacher and is now a presenter at the Plymouth Museum specializing in school tours. She will explain the history of American toys and demonstrate many of these unique examples of Americana.
Feb. 15	DIA Speaker	Through Her Eyes – Women Photographers: A presentations on fashion and its influence in art through the ages with works by women photographers.
Feb. 22	Kelly McDermott	The Pitch Benders: Kelly's flute students are on a mission! Because of their own struggles (8 th grade to 1 st year in college), they formed an ensemble to make a CD with all profits to go to the U of M Depression Center. Their music is varied, joyous and comes from their hearts.
March 1	Kathleen Howard	First Step – for Peaceful Families, Safe Communities: We will hear about First Step services that support survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Wayne County. We also can be part of their mission by bringing donations of cleaning supplies, paper products, diapers etc.
March 8	Mary Salmon	The History of Lace: Mary is a curator of "The Lace Museum Detroit". We will learn about the history of this ancient and beautiful art. She will bring some examples of lace for us to see.
March 15	Lisa Howard	Create Your Own Extraordinary: We will be guided in a creative experience by Lisa (Executive Director of the PCAC) with a short talk about developing creativity at any age, then a hands-on art project. Be prepared to participate and be surprised by your own abilities!
March 22	Joann Puffer Kotcher	A Touch of Home: Joann will share her heroic story of serving as a Red Cross "Donut Dolly" during the Vietnam War. She was one of the first women allowed behind enemy lines. Joann along with other "Donut Dollies" aided solders during this long and difficult war.
