

IMPORTANT MUSEUM GUIDELINES

Visiting the DIA will be a unique and extraordinary art experience for your group. In order for everyone to fully enjoy the DIA, we strongly encourage you to read our guidelines below.

Backpacks and Backpack Purses:

No luggage or backpacks (including backpack purses) of any type or size or backpack-style child carriers are allowed in the museum.

Those with medically necessary items or personal items will be provided with a clear bag that may be used to transport those items.

All backpacks must be checked in before entering the galleries. There are free lockers located at the Group Entrance.

Food and Beverages:

The DIA offers a wide range of food and beverage options in CaféDIA and Kresge Court. Unfortunately, no outside food or beverages are allowed in the museum. Please do not consume beverages, food, gum, or candy outside of CaféDIA or Kresge Court.

For a quick sip of water, drinking fountains are available throughout the museum near the restrooms.

Art Barriers and Proximity to Art:

Do not touch the artwork, frames, cases, mounts, or platforms

Do not sit, stand, lean, or place any object on cases, sculptures, barriers, platforms, or walls

Remain at least 18 inches away from all artworks. Please do not gesture within 18 inches of any artwork.

Do not cross stanchions, barriers, or platforms.

Photography:

Please turn your flash off when taking pictures in the galleries. Please leave any additional photography equipment at home, including tripods, monopods, selfie stick and the like.

We thank you for taking the time to read over the Important Museum Guidelines prior to visiting. We look forward to welcoming you to the DIA in the near future!
